Introduction

1. In its resolution 58/316, entitled "Further measures for the revitalization of the work of the General Assembly", the General Assembly, referring to its resolution 58/126, decided that the agenda of the Assembly should be organized under headings corresponding to the priorities of the medium-term plan for the period 2002-2005[1] with an additional heading for "Organizational, administrative and other matters" for the purpose of giving a sense of structure to the work of the Assembly.

2. The General Assembly, in resolution 58/316, further decided that in July of each year, the General Committee should conduct a review of the proposed programme of work for the forthcoming session of the General Assembly, on the basis of a report submitted by the Secretary-General, and submit recommendations on the matter to the forthcoming Assembly. The report should include information on the status of documentation to be issued during the forthcoming session.

3. The present report has been prepared in response to those requests.

4. To assist the General Committee and the General Assembly in their efforts to maximize both effectiveness and efficiency, the present report comprises; section I: the provisional agenda of the fifty-ninth regular session of the General Assembly issued in accordance with rule 12 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, included to serve as cross reference to section II; section II: the provisional agenda of the fifty-ninth regular session of the General Assembly organized under headings corresponding to the priorities of the Organization, as contained in the medium-term plan for the period 2002-2005; annex I containing the draft programme of work of the plenary of the General Assembly; annex II containing the draft programmes of work of the Main Committees of the General Assembly; and annex III on the status of documentation for the fifty-ninth session of the General Assembly. It should be noted that the programmes of work of the plenary of the Main Committees are drafts prepared by the Secretariat for the consideration of Member States.
